Interim DHS Form I-247G (09/19)

This form asks a jail to let ICE know in advance when the person named on the form will be released from custody.

The intent of this request is to arrange a transfer of that person directly to ICE at the time of release.

This request from ICE does not ask for or authorize detention.

Watch out for jails that will illegally delay release from custody to give ICE time to arrive.

Like any ICE detainer request, this form should not affect bail or other custody decisions. It is not evidence of a person's citizenship or immigration status.
