

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement
WARRANT OF REMOVAL/DEPORTATION

An ICE warrant is directed to federal immigration officers, not local law enforcement. Only federal immigration agents have authority to execute an immigration warrant. This includes designated 287(g) officers, but not any other state or local officers.

To any immigration officer of the United States Department of Homeland Security:

This warrant directs ICE or CBP to arrest and deport the person without any further hearing or judicial review. This ICE arrest warrant is based on a removal (aka deportation) order. It directs ICE or CBP to arrest and deport the person without any further hearing or judicial review.

on from the United States, based upon a final order by:
Judge in exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings
Special
Immigration Appeals
District or Magistrate Court Judge provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Many removal orders are issued by ICE or CBP agents without a hearing before a judge. These include expedited removal orders, administrative removal orders, and stipulated removal orders.

I, the undersigned officer of the United States, by virtue of the power and authority vested in the Secretary of Homeland Security under the laws of the United States and by his or her direction, command you to take into custody and remove from the United States the above-named alien, pursuant to law, at the expense of:

An internal ICE memo has claimed that these warrants give immigration officers authority to enter a person's home without their consent. This is contrary to federal law and regulations and is being challenged in court.

ICE Warrants are completed and signed by an ICE officer. There is no review by a judge or neutral magistrate as required by the Fourth Amendment.
