Re: Your letter dated May 2, 2014 to Orange County Counsel Nicholas S. Chrisos regarding Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas County

Dear Ms. Pasquarella:

This office is legal counsel for the County of Orange and its Sheriff's Department. The Orange County Sheriff's Department will no longer hold inmates with ICE detainees beyond their scheduled release date, absent a judicial determination of probable cause, a warrant of arrest, or other judicial order accompanying the ICE detainer. Please find enclosed a letter dated June 12, 2014, from Sheriff-Coroner Sandra Hutchens to ICE Field Office Director David W. Jennings.

Very truly yours,

NICHOLAS S. CHRISOS
COUNTY COUNSEL

Dear Mr. Jennings,

I am writing to advise you that, based on the federal court decision of Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas County, the letter dated February 25, 2014, from Acting ICE Director Daniel H. Ragsdale to Congressman Adam Smith, and the advice of County Counsel, effective Monday, June 16, 2014, the Orange County Sheriff's Department (OCSD) will no longer hold inmates with ICE detainers beyond their scheduled release date, absent a judicial determination of probable cause, a warrant of arrest, or other judicial order accompanying the ICE detainer. For those inmates with ICE detainers, OCSD will make all reasonable efforts to notify ICE when the inmates are scheduled for release or become eligible for release. ICE may take custody of the inmate so long as it occurs during OCSD's release process and does not require additional detention of the inmate by OCSD.

I appreciate and value our ongoing partnership with Immigration and Customs Enforcement and I intend to continue our inmate screening process as part of the 287g program. Unfortunately the decision not to hold inmates with ICE detainers was made after careful deliberation, and all possible alternatives to avoid this result were explored. However, the case authority and ICE's public position in the above-referenced letter that detainers are "not mandatory as a matter of law," has required this outcome so as to avoid significant liability exposure to the County of Orange. Please contact me or Assistant Sheriff Steve Kea if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Sandra Hutchens".

Sandra Hutchens
Sheriff-Coroner
